The Mayor's Welcome

Welcome to Alameda's 47th 4th of July Parade!

Leading this year's parade are Honorary Grand Marshal Congresswoman Barbara Lee and Grand Marshal Joe LoParo, a Vietnam War Veteran and tireless veterans' advocate.

You're in for a treat with a parade line-up of more than 160 entries, including live bands, floats, adorable kids, dance troops, equestrians, local businesses, and community groups! I look forward to seeing your smiles and waves when I ride by on my electric bicycle.

As we celebrate our nation's birthday, we also reflect upon and are grateful for the freedom we enjoy. Wishing you a happy and safe 4th of July!

Marilyn Ezzy Ashcraft
Mayor of Alameda

Meet Our Grand Marshals

Honorary Grand Marshal Congresswomen Barbara Lee

As she ends a long and distinguished career in public service, Congresswoman Barbara Lee will serve as the Parade's Honorary Grand Marshal, her last time riding in Alameda's 4th of July Parade.

Congresswoman Lee has represented Alameda in the United States Congress since 1998, in the California State Senate from 1996 to 1998, and in the State Assembly from 1990 to 1996. Let's bid her a fond farewell.

Parade Grand Marshal Vietnam War Veteran Joe LoParo

Joe served in the United States Marine Corps during the Vietnam War as a helicopter squad crew member who helped evacuate 10,000 individuals.

Returning to America, Joe was stationed at the Alameda Naval Air Station and decided to make Alameda his home. Today, Joe is a local real estate broker, prolific volunteer, and tireless advocate for veterans. Joe, today we salute you!
