

City of Alameda
Finance Department
2263 Santa Clara Avenue, Room 220
Alameda, CA 94501

(510) 747-4881

APPLICATION FOR LOW-INCOME EXEMPTION FORM OF UTILITY USERS' TAX INCREASE

Name: _____ Social Security #: _____ - _____ - _____

Service Address: _____ Apt. # _____ Zip: _____

Mailing Address: _____
(If different from service address)

Day Phone: (____) _____ Evening Phone: (____) _____

Name of Utility (Service Supplier)	Account Number
Electric (AMP)	(Cust. No.)
PG&E (Pacific Gas and Electric)
Cable (Comcast)

I qualified under the low-income exemption per income guidelines contained in the City of Alameda's utility users' tax brochure.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the above information is true and correct.

Date: _____ Signature: _____

Presentation of a false claim is a felony punishable by a fine and/or imprisonment (California Penal Code Section 72)

FOR OFFICIAL USE ONLY

Eligible: Yes: _____ No: _____

Reviewed By: _____ Date: _____

See Reverse Side

UTILITY USERS' TAX EXEMPTION CITY OF ALAMEDA RESIDENTS ONLY

Who is eligible? You may be granted an exemption if your household's combined annual gross income is equal to or less than the limits for "Very Low Income" set by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) or you are at least 62 years of age.

Eligibility requirements and refunds are issued only to persons whose names are on the bill.

Very Low Income Limits:

Number of Persons	Combined Household Income Limit – 2014
1	$32,200
2	36,800
3	41,400
4	46,000
5	49,700
6	53,400
7	57,050
8	60,750

If you have any further questions, please call the Finance Department at Alameda City Hall (510) 747-4881

What is counted as household income? "Gross annual income" shall mean all income, regardless of source, and includes, but is not limited to, income subject to federal and state income taxation. Social Security payments, pensions, welfare payments, interest on tax-exempt investments, gifts, alimony and inheritances.

How do you apply? If you meet the eligibility requirements, please complete the application on the reverse side and mail it to:

City of Alameda
Attention: Finance Department
2263 Santa Clara Avenue, Room 220
Alameda, CA 94501