BLOCK 10 - The buildings will be individually named and will relay the tenants - activities that we plan within. The Block 10 design must be intimate, scaled to be comfortable to explore whether there are just a few persons or many. It must echo and be authentic to the history of its place while offering compelling people spaces. It can offer a diverse and carefully curated selection of unique, locally-owned specialty shops and food offerings. It will combine artisan shops and workspaces with variety of scale and venues. Historic spaces brought back to create a lively and inspiring community of small businesses that present the perfect blend of quality goods, services and food. Think Hayes Valley meets Alameda - Temescal Alley Expands and Grows up.
